

PRIVACY & DISCLOSURE POLICY

Policy Statement

The policy reflects the intention of the Board of Trustees that the Trust Fund will be administered in an open and transparent manner and that Plan members insured under the LTD Plan, Plan Sponsors, and other participating entities will be provided with all necessary information appropriate to their interest. This policy is approved by the Board and reviewed formally every three (3) years, or as warranted.

The Trust Fund will adhere to the privacy protection provisions of applicable legislation relating to the collection, use, disposal, storage, and disclosure of information. The Trust Fund utilizes as a guideline, the principles established within the Canadian Standards Association Model Code for the Protection of Personal Information supported by the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA).

This policy recognizes the importance of privacy and supports the protection of Plan members' confidential information. Only the personal information needed for the purposes of the Trust Fund, benefit administration and claims management, is to be collected and it is to be used only for the purposes of the Trust Fund. Confidential information is not to be disclosed or released except with express written authorization of the member or as legally required.

Plan Member Information

The Board of Trustees retains the services of an independent Claims Administrator to provide case management services and claims administration for the LTD Plan. The Claims Administrator collects the Plan members' personal information and maintains the Plan members' file. Access to personal information provided to or collected by the Claims Administrator will be limited to the Claims Administrator's employees and service providers in the performance of their jobs except as provided below.

A Plan member is entitled to receive, without charge, a copy of their file maintained by the Claims Administrator.

An AUTHORIZATION OF REPRESENTATIVE AND RELEASE OF FILE INFORMATION must be submitted to the Claims Administrator prior to their releasing the Plan member's file to the Plan member's representative, Appendix A.

Any records that the Claims Administrator possesses in relation to a Plan Member's claim will be obtained with informed consent and are the property of the Trust Fund. The Claims Administrator will only release this information, for any purpose connected with the functions of the Office of the LTD Fund, to the said Office.

The Claims Administrator and the Office of the LTD Fund may share Plan member information only for Plan administration purposes to the following entities:

- Employer
- Union, if applicable
- Plan Sponsors
- Trustees of the Trust Fund
- Auditors
- Accountants
- Canada Revenue Agency
- Nova Scotia Pension Service Corp
- Legal Counsel
- Consultants, as needed
- Court enforced maintenance orders

Personal information may be disclosed during routine administrative tasks, such as audit, record-keeping, and reporting.

Personal information may be disclosed in person, by mail, e-mail, telephone, facsimile, or other electronic means.

While it is not a common occurrence, it may become necessary for the Office of the LTD Fund to collect, use, or release personal information in the detection or prevention of fraud or in the discharge of a public duty (e.g., advising police of a potential crime).

Information Released Upon Request

Reports, Studies

Any analyses, reports, studies, or similar documents, prepared by, for or on behalf of the Board providing advice or recommendations regarding the Trust Fund and/or its operations may be made available after a period of confidentiality. The standard period of confidentiality will be five years after presentation or delivery to the Board; however, the Board may reduce, eliminate, or increase this period of confidentiality for any specific document.

Confidential Information

Any document not identified above shall be considered confidential unless the Board of Trustees determines otherwise.

In order that Trustees may feel free to express opinions and openly debate issues that come before them, the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Trustees and Committees of the Board shall be confidential. Any notes made by a Trustee during a meeting shall be the property of the Trustee and shall be confidential.

All third parties who are retained to aid in the administration and operation of the Trust are required to agree that they will comply with this Privacy & Disclosure Policy.
